DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to because descriptive labels should be provided to Fig. 1. A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

2. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

3. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "comprises", should be avoided. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

4. The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Art Unit: 2697

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC (See 37 CFR 1.52(e)(5) and MPEP 608.05. Computer program listings (37 CFR 1.96(c)), "Sequence Listings" (37 CFR 1.821(c)), and tables having more than 50 pages of text are permitted to be submitted on compact discs.) or REFERENCE TO A "MICROFICHE APPENDIX" (See MPEP § 608.05(a). "Microfiche Appendices" were accepted by the Office until March 1, 2001.)
- (e) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (f) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (g) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (h) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (i) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (j) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 2697

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

5. Claims 1 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hsin et al. U.S. Patent No. 6,580,579.

Regarding claim 1, Hsin et al. discloses an apparatus having a control circuit, which comprises a feedforward filter arrangement (See col. 2, lines 28-40; col. 3, lines 54-63; col. 4, lines 4-7; Fig. 2, ref. #, 230,232) and a controller (See col. 2, lines 41-67; col. 4, lines 12-15; Fig. 2, ref. #214), characterized in that an adaptation of the parameters of the feedforward filter arrangement and the parameters of the controller is effected during operation of the apparatus (See Abstract ;col. 2, lines 28-40; col. 4, lines 10-15; col. 4, lines 41-48; Fig. 2,5)

Regarding claim 3, Hsin et al. discloses said apparatus includes a disk drive for storage disk media (See Abstract; Fig. 1,2), in which vibrations and internal disturbances, which occur during operation of the apparatus, are compensated by an adaptation of the parameters of the feedforward filter arrangement and the parameters of the controller (See Abstract ; col. 2, lines 28-40; col. 4, lines 10-15; col. 4, lines 41-53; Fig. 2,5).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hsin et al. U.S. Patent No. 6,580,579 in view of Ferguson et al. U.S. Patent No. 5,619,581.

Hsin et al. discloses all the limitations based on claim 1 as outlined above. Hsin et al. further discloses disclose characterized in that for the adaptation an adaptation algorithm (See col. 4, lines 46-49; Fig. 2, ref. # 232), but Hsin et al. fails to disclose wherein the adaptation algorithm is executed on a microprocessor, particularly a digital signal processor.

However this feature is well known in the art as evidenced by Ferguson et al., which discloses a control system for cancellation vibration whereby the system includes an adaptation algorithm executed by a microprocessor, particularly a digital signal processor (See col. 3, lines 35-66; Fig. 2)

Therefore it would have been obvious to one with ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to wherein the adaptation algorithm is executed on a microprocessor, particularly a digital signal processor in order to adjust the parameters of the feedforward filter in order to optimize faster and slower adaptation calculations.

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

- a. U.S. Patent No. 5,321,512 to Huang, which discloses an eccentricity control circuit including a digital signal processor and a feed-forward controller.
- b. U.S. Patent No. 6,018,431 to Carlson et al., which discloses a disk drive system having a shock evaluator.
